

PROFILE

HON. NORMAN O. HEMMING, III

Norman a member of Jamaica College Class of 1980, has a degree in Government and Public Administration earned at John Jay College of Criminal Justice and Cornell University. He is a Merit Fellow graduate of Howard Law School where he served as Associate Editor of the Law Journal and President of the Student Bar Association. He has a theology degree from Shiloh Theological Seminary in Stafford, Virginia, and is an Ordained Minister. He presently serves as Chief Administrative law Judge for the Miami, FL and Macon & Albany, GA Offices of Hearing Operations.

He is a member of the Pastor's Council of The Faith Place Church. Norman is also Chaplain for the FBI. Additionally, Norman has previously served on the Vice-Provost Council for Florida International University, which raises and distributes scholarships to students of FIU who are first in their family to attend college. Norman also previously served on the Board of Easter Seals of Florida and remains active in advocating on behalf of the neurologically challenged.

HON. NORMAN O. HEMMING, III

PROFILE

Further, Norman has served as a conciliator for the Sunni, Shia, Christian, Sikh, Hindu Jewish and Ahmadiyya communities in South Florida. Judge Hemming is the recipient of the coveted CAIR Florida award; the 2022 Jamaica 60th Emancipence Award; the 2022 City of Birmingham, England Chairman's Diamond Award; the 2018 Association of Caribbean Commissioners of Police Award; the 2016 Community Service award from the Pakistani American Association; the Special Agent in Charge Award from the FBI Miami Division; the 2016 Law Enforcement Foundation Award for 'Prosecutor of the Year'; the South Florida High Intensity Drug Trafficking Area abatement Award; the 2012 US Department of Justice Hugo Black Award; the US Department of Commerce NOAA Award for interdiction of smuggled endangered species; the Nucleo Polizia Tributaria from the Guardia Di Finanza in Pescara, Italy; and the Noted Judiciary Award from the Jamaican American Bar Association.

Concomitantly, Mr. Hemming presently serves on the Alumni Association Board of Directors for Jamaica College. Penultimately, Norman serves on the Diversity Committee for Broward County School Board.

More importantly, Norman is married for 30 years to his wife Carol, and is the father of two children, Imani, an attorney practicing in Hollywood, FL, and Rachel who is a Senior at Florida International University and a social media influencer.